Brushes

8, #10 and #6 round watercolor brushes (sable or synthetic)
1/2" and 1" flat wash brushes

Paper

Fabiano Artístico Watercolor Paper, 140lb weight Cold Press, OR Arches 140lb weight Cold Press Watercolor Paper - either pads, blocks or sheets, approx. 9"X12" - at least 6 sheets OR 300lb weight Cold Press paper (optional)

Sundries

White Moo or Vanish brand eraser
2b pencil (2) and sharpener OR mechanical pencil (Pentel Twist-Erase (.05 Lead size) has a retractable eraser attached)
Masking fluid - either in bottle (Pebeo), (You will also need a small cheap brush if you use the bottle type – ‘Snap’ brush #4 from Art Central works well for applying the masking fluid)
White palette for mixing colors, (I use the John Pike palette)
Water container - (clear plastic container works well for this)
Masking tape for delicate surfaces (from the hardware store)
Tissues (without lanolin)
Small cellulose sponge (Trader Joes pop up sponges work well)
Tracing paper – optional but useful for more complicated drawings.
Transfer paper - Saral Graphite – optional but useful for more complicated drawings
