

DIETETIC INTERNSHIP

2023-2024

CAL POLY

Offered by Food Science and Nutrition Department and Extended Education

Program Highlights

Individualized Experiences

- Choose from our diverse community rotation sites.
- Complete staff relief in any area of practice.
- Create an elective experience that meets your professional needs anywhere across the country!

Small Cohort, Big Impact

The Dietetic Internship enrolls 10 interns annually to gain experiences while serving communities along the beautiful Central Coast of California, including the counties of:

- San Luis Obispo
- Santa Barbara
- Ventura

Weekly Professional Seminar

Interns come together weekly to engage in team building, advance their knowledge and skills and allow them to explore and apply advanced professional concepts.

- Graduate-level credits earned!
- Guest speakers, field trips, journal club, program leadership opportunities and more.
- Interns help select speakers and experiences.
